IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill requires the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) to adopt rules to: (1) establish standards for persons administering the motorcycle operational skills tests; and (2) determine a charge to cover the direct costs of administering the operational skills tests. It repeals the definition of "certified motorcycle operational examiner".

Effective Date: Upon passage; July 1, 2006.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) Requiring the BMV to adopt rules by July 1, 2007, will have no fiscal impact. This would be accomplished within the current rule-making procedures for the BMV. The fund affected is the Motor Vehicle Highway Account (MVHA) which supports the BMV.

Determining a charge to cover the direct costs of administering the operational skills test will have an indeterminable impact on the BMV.
